

Welcome Home Thrift & More

Donation Guide

This guide is designed to help you as you prepare to donate items that you or your family no longer want or need. We are intentionally selective in terms of what we offer, But we utilize a variety of outlets to try and sell what's being donated. Once your possessions leave your hands at our facility, they become property of Welcome Home Thrift & More to use at our discretion. Below is a list of items we will accept, along with items we will not, to help you sort your donations.
